1. Setting the Stage: The Civil War Revisited
   a. ___________: The American Civil War was caused by a complex combination of issues surrounding ________________
      i. Morally: Many _______________ _______ _____________ idea of slavery ii. Economically: Many Southerners were completely ________ on slavery

b. The North (The Union)
   i. Led by ________________ (Eventually elected president in 1868)
   ii. Advantages: more ____________, more food production, larger troop numbers, more ______________, better navy, & ________________

c. The South (Confederate States)
   i. Led by General __________________________
   ii. Advantages: better _______________ ________________, naturally skilled soldiers, _________________ advantage, _________________ troops

d. How did it end?
   i. Northern numbers and _______________ ______ _____________ was too much for the Southern military to overcome
   ii. Lee surrenders to Grant at ____________ Courthouse on April 9, 1865
   iii. Lincoln was shot by _________________________ at Ford’s Theater on April ____, 18____ and died the next morning
   iv. _______________ _________________ was sworn in as president
2. What is Reconstruction?
   a. Reconstruction is the period during which the _____________________________ after the Civil War roughly 1865-1877
   b. Essentially, reconstruction was the attempt to _____________________________ ___________ back into the Union
   c. Lincoln, Andrew Johnson, and Congress all _____ _____________ _________ about how Reconstruction should be handled
   d. Confederate readmission into Congress took place between ________________
   e. President Johnson removed Secretary of War Edwin Stanton from office and was __________ for violating the Tenure of Office Act but remained in office after the Senate voted _________________
   f. Impeachment: __________________________________________________________

3. What changes were enacted
   a. The Reconstruction Amendments
      i. 13th: ________________________________
         ii. ____: States cannot deprive citizens of life, liberty, or property without “due process” & States must provide “___________________” to all citizens under the law
            iii. 15th: __________ _______ right to _______ based on race
   b. The ____________________________ tried to prevent states from discriminating against Blacks
   c. The ____________________________ allowed the Federal Government to intervene when states refused to follow these laws
   d. The ____________________________ of _______ prohibited discrimination in public services like hotels, public transportation, and restaurants
   e. If the ____________________________ and enforced, as listed above, discrimination based on race is __________  Result: The ____________ changed America. The country was ripped apart due to the idea of slavery only to be carefully reconstructed to bring unity back. ________________ brought with it many new freedoms for those who had previously been denied freedom and rights. As you will see coming up, that freedom and those rights would be relatively __________________________.